Delia Caruso—We would like to congratulate our daughter Delia on her first middle school play. Delia we are so proud of you and all of your hard work . We love watching you do what you love to do. Keep reaching for the stars they are limitless. We would also like to congratulate the entire cast and crew on an amazing performance.—Love Mom, Dad and Rocco learned how to talk. I've been in dance for ten years. Singing dancing and acting are three things that I really enjoy doing. The last two years, I was in the Woodhull school plays. I was in "The Lion King" as a zebra and "High School Musical" as a cheerleader. I am very excited to be part of this production. I am also looking forward to what the years ahead hold for me as I pursue acting, dancing and singing in the 8th grade and the high school.

Danielle Mendikyan (Ensemble) Danielle loves acting and has been in other plays. She is excited to present the play to her friends and family.

Andy Ulloa (Junior Stage Manager) Andy has always loved theater, whether he was performing or working backstage. In 6th grade Andy got the opportunity to do stage crew backstage on Little Mermaid Jr.” at Woodhull. He immediately fell in love with it. He continues to work/manage stage crew at Huntington High School. He wanted to gain more experience so last year he decided to help out the Finley stage crew. With his knowledge as a performer and technical theater he decided to student director this year and is gaining so much information.

Hannah Byers (Prop and Costume Master) This is Hannah Byers second year participating in stage crew. She also enjoys art club, dance and violin.

Christina Drummings (Subar-Tu, Hun soldier) I am Christina
Drummings. I am in the 8th grade. I have been in previous plays.
I was in “A Christmas Carol” as the warehouse clerk, Fred’s Guest 4, Child 4, and Child 2. I was in last year’s play “Oz” as the Light, citizens, and munchkins. I am also a dancer I have been dancing for eight years now.

Emma Waters (Microphone Assistant) Emma likes music, cats, reading, fencing, birding, and theater. This is her first time working on a production.

Delia Caruso (Matchmaker) My love for acting started at a very young age. I like acting because I feel like I am able to explore different parts of my personality. I started singing ever since Erin Purcell (Hong, Ancestor) Erin has had so much fun playing Hong in the Finley production of “Mulan, Jr.” She hopes to take part in future plays.

Jack Alba (Sound) Hi, my name is Jack Alba and I’m in 8th grade here at Finley. This is my second year participating in stage crew. Last year I helped managed the sound for “Oz Jr.” and I had a lot of fun. I’m excited to be a part of “Mulan Jr.” in my last year at Finley and want to wish the cast and crew good luck!

Morgan Colleluori (Emperor) I am so excited to participate in Finley’s play “Mulan Jr.” as the Emperor. It’s been a great experience and I have made so many new friends. I have also participated in Woodhull’s plays “The Lion King Jr.” and “Annie Jr”.

Sarah Corwin (Young Xiao, Villager) My name is Sarah and I have worked with a ton of musicals. A few years ago I worked with “Aladdin” and last year I was in the production of “Cats”. I have also been in a few school plays the “Lion King” and “High School Musical”. I always loved theater and art so I decided to join this year’s production of “Mulan Jr.”

Nadeera Ali (Ensemble) This is Nadeera’s very first production. She has watched many of her brother Zubair’s plays and has always wanted to follow him. Nadeera is very excited for more productions to come.

Shannon Milner (Magyar, Hun soldier) This is Shannon’s fifth production. She has been in “Annie Jr.”, “The Lion King Jr.”, “Oz” and “Frog and Toad”. Shannon loves to sing, draw and act.

Synopsis

The Fa Family Ancestors take us back to ancient China, where Mulan’s big day to meet the village Matchmaker has arrived (“Written in Stone”). Mulan’s father, Fa Zhou, prays to the family ancestors (“Honor to Us All”) to no avail. A nervous Mulan wrecks her betrothal ceremony, dishonoring the family (“Honor to Us All—Reprise”) and making herself feel terrible (“Reflection”). Fa Zhou is unexpectedly called to the army by Chi Fu, the Emperor’s councilor, having no son to join for him. Against her feeble father’s command, Mulan steals Fa Zhou’s helmet and sword, dresses as a boy, and runs away from home to go in his place (“Written in Stone—Reprise”). The Ancestors have no choice but to send the misfit dragon, Mushu, to stop Mulan, who will be killed if she is discovered (“Honor to Us All—Reprise”).

As Shan-Yu and the Huns prepare to attack China, Mushu helps Mulan act like a soldier (“Keep ‘Em Guessing”). Mulan introduces herself as “Ping” and joins the Guys—Yao, Ling and Qian-Po—to endure Captain Shang’s grueling training (“I’ll Make a Man Out of You/Lesson No. 1”). The Chinese Soldiers march to defend a mountain village from Shan-Yu (“A Girl Worth Fighting For”), but arrive too late. While the soldiers grieve (“A Girl Worth Fighting For – Reprise”), the Huns attack. Mulan creates noise to trigger an avalanche, which covers the Huns and saves the Soldiers from destruction. Shang honors Ping, only to discover Mulan beneath the helmet. He spares Mulan’s life for saving his, but leaves her behind (“Written in Stone/Reflection – Reprise”).

Suddenly, Shan-Yu and the Huns emerge from the avalanche and race toward the Imperial City. Mulan runs ahead to warn Shang (“Written in Stone—Reprise”). At the Emperor’s Palace, the Chinese people celebrate the defeat of the Huns. While Shang ignores Mulan, Shan-Yu surprises and kidnaps the Emperor. Mulan convinces Shang and the Guys to dress as women to distract Shan-Yu while Mushu signals the army (“Keep ‘Em Guessin’—Reprise”). The Guys save the Emperor, Mulan defeats Shan-Yu and the Huns retreat. The Emperor honors Mulan’s bravery, to everyone’s surprise and delight (“A Girl Worth Fighting For—Reprise”). Back at home, Fa Zhou welcomes his beloved—and honorable—daughter. Shang surprises Mulan with a visit as a suitor instead of a captain. The Ancestors invite Mushu into the Fa Family Temple as a full-fledged Guardian (“Honor to Us All—Finale,” “Keep ‘Em Guessin’ – Bows”).

Alexis Kaloudis (Fa Li, Mulan’s mother) Alexis is thrilled to be playing the role of Fa Li, Mulan’s mother. She is excited to sing and dance with this talented ensemble. Previously, Alexis played the part of Rafiki in “The Lion King Jr.” at Woodhull. She was also in the ensemble of “Annie Jr.”, as well as a few short plays at the High School camp. Alexis would like to thank her family and friends for all of the support they have given her. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Joshua Youngquist (Fa Zhou, Mulan’s father) Joshua Youngquist is currently in the 8th grade and this is his first performance with the drama club at Finley Middle School. He is very happy to be performing in “Mulan Jr.” as Fa Zhou and Shan-yu. Joshua enjoys working with the cast and crew and has made many memories and hopes to continue to be part of the drama club as he enters the high school in the fall. He would like to thank all his teachers and his Mom for constantly supporting him and helping him achieve his goals. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Katerina Damiano (Cheongsam, Salesperson) I’ve always loved theater and this is my first time being in a real production or play and I’m very excited to put on this show!

David Canas (Quin-Po, Chinese soldier) I joined theater this year because I wanted to go out of my comfort zone and I also liked how people with different talents come and put on the play to make a great performance.

Charlotte Simon (Chen, Chinese soldier) Charlotte is very excited for her last play at Finley. She loves acting and has been in many plays such as “Annie”, “The Lion King”, “Oz”, and others. She plans to continue acting as she moves to the high school.

Who's Who in the Cast and Crew

Gina Marie Trigan-Molvaut, (b. Bronx, 1962) AKA Madame Molvaut, teaches French and Italian at Finley Middle School. Mme Molvaut's experience in Theatre began with her experience at Stony Brook University where she majored in French and Fine Arts. Mostly interested in Performance Art, she originated the INTRARTS club and produced full-day multimedia art happenings in the Fine Arts Plaza. As she continued through Graduate School at Stony Brook, then NYU, her fascination with the Theatre eventually led to doctoral research in Paris where she analyzed original 19th Century Stage manuals from Victor Hugo's and Alexandra Dumas' Romantic dramas. She attended the Institut des Etudes Théâtrales at the Sorbonne III where she gained a theoretical foundation in "semiology" or the reading of theatrical signs. Those of you who know Madame Molvaut have probably sensed her strong affinity for theatricality and the performing arts. "Mulan Jr." is the third musical production she has directed at FMS, following "OZ", and "Seussical Jr."

Ally Kustera (Mulan) Ally Kustera is so thrilled to be part of this cast! Recent credits include Joanne in "Godspell" and Little Red in "Into the Woods". Ally also appeared in an original musical "Reddi High" as Kennedy. You may have also seen her on season 2 of "Chopped Jr" on the Food Network. A big thanks to Madame Molvaut, Ms. Garbarino, and Mr. Santangelo!

Angie Hernandez-Ramos (Grandmother Fa) I used to do the play back at Woodhull. In my first play "The Lion King" I played the role of Pumbaa the Warthog. Last year I participated "High School Musical" and played Ms. Darbus the Drama Teacher. I've done a lot of singing throughout my life and I really enjoy doing the play!

Director's Note

The Broadway musical "Mulan Jr." offers our Finley performers a powerful, complex music score with fugues, lyrical pieces, and lively swing numbers. This fabulous music score combines with its script into a grandiose production of impressive historical scenes, large-group dances, touching domestic scenes, humorous exchanges, and self-reflective moments. The setting of Mulan's journey in Imperial China demands a certain exquisite simplicity suggested visually through color, form, and subtle detail and opposed by the harsh, brutal reality of war, destruction, and death. The legend of the Chinese heroine Mulan has been told for centuries and yet seems so contemporary in its questioning of gender roles. The actions of this young woman, who disguises herself as a man to serve in the army in her father's place, makes Mulan an inspirational model for young woman of all times, while affirming the core values of Loyalty and Honor. Mulan's pathway—one of Destiny, Strength, and Love—inevitably becomes one of change: Doa. Our production of "Mulan Jr." has the FMS Drama Club exploring the universal theme of individual sacrifice for the greater good, and how the path of personal discovery often lies in that sacrifice.
